Ä„hem...

The Nerd
You scored 48% geek!

Congratulations. You're accepted within the geek community. They allow you to roam their message boards and peruse their chat rooms without attacking you.

You probably really like learning, and that's not a bad thing. It doesn't make you any less of a nerd, though.

There's a high probability you have never had sex. Sorry. The test said it, not me.

My test tracked 1 variable How you compared to other people your age and gender: You scored higher than 84% on geekiness

Och schade, wenn du etwas besser abgeschnitten hÄ„ttetest, hÄ„tte ich das perfekte Online-Comic zu dir gehabt (<http://joyoftech.com/joyoftech/joyarchives/065.html>)

Die filosofische Frage der Stunde ist jetzt: Was bedeutet bei so einem Test "besser"?

Hmm, keine Ahnung. Aber "Linux-god" hÄ„tte besser geklungen, als "The nerd" ...
